

What Jack had yesterday

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Jack.

Yesterday, He had a delicious breakfast. He ate an apple and drank a lot of milk. The apple was very tasty, and the milk was refreshing. He also had a few pancakes. Yum!

Did he have a delicious breakfast yesterday? Yes, he did.

Did he eat an apple? Yes, he did.

Did he drink tea? No, he didn't. He drank a lot of milk.

Was the apple tasty? Yes, it was.

Was the milk refreshing? Yes, it was.

Did he have a lot of pancakes, too? No, he didn't. He had a few pancakes.

What did Jack eat yesterday morning? He ate an apple and a few pancakes.

What did he drink yesterday morning? He drank a lot of milk.

After breakfast, he went to the park with his friends.

What did he do after breakfast? He went to the park.

When did he go to the park? After breakfast. He went to the park after breakfast.

Who did he go to the park with? With his friends. He went to the park with his friends.

Did he go to school after breakfast? No, he didn't. He went to the park.

Did he go to the park with his parents? No, he didn't. He went to the park with his friends.

Did he go to the park after breakfast? Yes, he did.

He played soccer and laughed a lot. It was so much fun! He kicked the ball into the goal, and everyone cheered. They were all very happy.

What did he play in the park? Soccer. He played soccer.

Did he laugh a lot? Yes, he did.

Did he kick the ball into the goal? Yes, he did.

Did everyone cheer him? Yes, they did.

Were they all sad at the park? No, they weren't. They were all very happy.

Later, They were thirsty, so they went to a little café.

How did they feel after soccer? Thirsty. They felt thirsty.

Did they go to a restaurant? No, they didn't. They went to a café.

Where did they go? To a café. They went to a café.

He ordered a little honey and some butter. It was great.

Did he order a little chicken and rice? No, he didn't.

What did he order at the café? A little honey and some butter.

Was the honey and butter great? Yes, it was.

His friends got some colorful fruit juice, too.

What did his friends get? They got some fruit juice, too.

Did they get some water? No, they didn't. They got some fruit juice.

They sat there, eating and sipping their drinks and talking about their favorite games.

What did they do at the café? They sat, ate, sipped their drinks and talked about their favorite games.

Did they talk about their favorite teachers? No, they didn't.

What did they talk about? They talked about their favorite games.

In the evening, he went home for dinner.

Did he go home at noon? No, he didn't.

Did he go home in the evening? Yes, he did.

When did he go home? He went home in the evening.

His mom made some noodles. The noodles were long and tasty. He ate the noodles with a little sauce. The sauce was nice.

Who made some noodles? His mom. His mom made some noodles.

What were the noodles like? Long and tasty. They were long and tasty.

Did he eat the noodles with a lot of sauce? No, he didn't. He ate the noodles with a little sauce.

Was the sauce nice? Yes, it was.

After dinner, he had a small snack.

What did he have after dinner? A small snack. He had a small snack.

Did he have the snack after dinner? Yes, he did.

He grabbed two big chocolate cookies from the jar. They were soft in the middle and crunchy on the outside. He ate the cookies with a lot of milk – a perfect ending to an amazing day!

How many chocolate cookies did he grab from the jar? Two. He grabbed two chocolate cookies.

Were the cookies big or small? Big. They were big.

Did he eat the cookies with some water? No, he didn't.

What did he eat the cookies with? With a lot of milk. He ate them with a lot of milk.

He kissed his mom and thanked her and went to bed at 11 o'clock.

Did he kiss his mom before going to bed? Yes, he did.

Did he thank his mom? Yes, he did.

What time did he go to bed? At 11 o'clock. He went to bed at 11 p.m.

It was an amazing day for him with a lot of tasty foods and drinks.