

What Jack has everyday

There is a boy named Jack.

Every day, He has a delicious breakfast. He eats an apple and drinks a lot of milk. The apple is very tasty, and the milk is refreshing. He also has a few pancakes. Yum!

Does he have a delicious breakfast every day? Yes, he does.

Does he eat an apple? Yes, he does.

Does he drink tea? No, he doesn't. He drinks a lot of milk.

Is the apple tasty? Yes, it is.

Is the milk refreshing? Yes, it is.

Does he have a lot of pancakes, too? No, he doesn't. He has a few pancakes.

What does Jack eat every morning? He eats an apple and a few pancakes.

What does he drink every morning? He drinks a lot of milk.

After breakfast, he goes to the park with his friends.

What does he do after breakfast? He goes to the park.

When does he go to the park? After breakfast. He goes to the park after breakfast.

Who does he go to the park with? With his friends. He goes to the park with his friends.

Does he go to school after breakfast? No, he doesn't. He goes to the park.

Does he go to the park with his parents? No, he doesn't. He goes to the park with his friends.

Does he go to the park after breakfast? Yes, he does.

Every day, he plays soccer and laughs a lot. It is so much fun! He kicks the ball into the goal, and everyone cheers. They are all very happy.

What does he play in the park? Soccer. He plays soccer.

Does he laugh a lot? Yes, he does.

Does he kick the ball into the goal? Yes, he does.

Does everyone cheer him? Yes, they do.

Are they all sad at the park? No, they aren't. They are all very happy.

Later, They are thirsty, so they go to a little café.

How do they feel after soccer? Thirsty. They feel thirsty.

Do they go to a restaurant? No, they don't. They go to a café.

Where do they go? To a café. They go to a café.

He orders a little honey and some butter. It is great.

Does he order a little chicken and rice? No, he doesn't.

What does he order at the café? A little honey and some butter.

Is the honey and butter great? Yes, it is.

His friends get some colorful fruit juice, too.

What do his friends get? They get some fruit juice, too.

Do they get some water? No, they don't. They get some fruit juice.

They sit there, eating and sipping their drinks and talking about their favorite games.

What do they do at the café? They sit, eat, sip their drinks and talk about their favorite games.

Do they talk about their favorite teachers? No, they don't.

What do they talk about? They talk about their favorite games.

Every evening, he goes home for dinner.

Does he go home at noon? No, he doesn't.

Does he go home in the evening? Yes, he does.

When does he go home? He goes home in the evening.

Every night, his mom makes some noodles. The noodles are long and tasty. He eats the noodles with a little sauce. The sauce is nice.

Who makes some noodles? His mom. His mom makes some noodles.

What are the noodles like? Long and tasty. They are long and tasty.

Does he eat the noodles with a lot of sauce? No, he doesn't. He eats the noodles with a little sauce.

Is the sauce nice? Yes, it is.

After dinner, he always has a small snack.

What does he have after dinner? A small snack. He has a small snack.

Does he have the snack after dinner? Yes, he does.

He grabs two big chocolate cookies from the jar. They are soft in the middle and crunchy on the outside. He eats the cookies with a lot of milk – a perfect ending to an amazing day!

How many chocolate cookies does he grab from the jar? Two. He grabs two chocolate cookies.

Are the cookies big or small? Big. They are big.

Does he eat the cookies with some water? No, he doesn't.

What does he eat the cookies with? With a lot of milk. He eats them with a lot of milk.

He kisses his mom and thanks her and goes to bed at 11 o'clock.

Does he kiss his mom before going to bed? Yes, he does.

Does he thank his mom? Yes, he does.

What time does he go to bed? At 11 o'clock. He goes to bed at 11 p.m.

Every day, It is amazing for him with a lot of tasty foods and drinks.