

Whisker the Mouse

Once upon a time in a little mouse hole, there lives a small mouse named Whisker. Whisker is not an ordinary mouse; he has a magical tail that can wiggle and jiggle.

Where does Whisker live? In a little mouse hole. He lives in a little mouse hole.

Is Whisker an ordinary mouse? No, he's not.

Why is he a different mouse? Because he has a magical tail.

What can his tail do? It can wiggle and jiggle.

Every morning, Whisker wakes up early. He exercises around his mouse hole, and gives his magical tail a few wiggles.

Does Whisker wake up early? Yes, he does. He wakes up early every morning.

What does he do after waking up? He exercises in his mouse hole.

What does he do with his tail? He gives his magical tail a few wiggles.

Is his tail magical? Yes, it is. He has a magical tail.

This tail is cute and it can make wishes come true!

Can this tail make wishes come true? Yes, it can. It can make wishes come true.

Is his tail cute? Yes, it is.

But there's a problem. Whisker can only make one wish per day.

What is the problem? He can only make one wish per day.

Can he make a lot of wishes per day? No, he can't. He can only make one wish per day.

Yesterday, Whisker had an adventure. He scurried through the mouse tunnels, passing other mice who waved their tiny paws in greeting. Suddenly, he saw a delicious piece of cheese.

Did he scurry through the mouse tunnels yesterday? Yes, he did. Yesterday, he scurried through the mouse tunnels.

Did the other mice wave their paws in greeting? Yes, they did.

What did he see? A piece of cheese. He saw a piece of cheese.

Did he see an old friend? No, he didn't. He saw a delicious piece of cheese.

Was the piece of cheese delicious? Yes, it was.

His eyes widened with joy! Whisker made his wish – "I wish for the most delicious cheese in the whole mouse world!" And poof! Right before his eyes, the cheese changed into the most mouth-watering, delicious cheese he had ever seen.

What did he do when he saw the piece of cheese? He made his wish.

What did he wish for? The most delicious cheese in the whole world.

Did his wish come true? Yes, it did.

Did the cheese change into the most delicious cheese he had ever seen? Yes, it did. The cheese changed into the most mouth-watering, delicious cheese he had ever seen.

Whisker spent the whole day enjoying his great cheese.

What did he do the whole day? He spent the whole day enjoying his cheese.

Did he enjoy eating his great cheese? Yes, he did.

He also gave some to his friends.

Did he give some cheese to his friends too? Yes, he did. He also gave some cheese to his friends.

As the day changed to night, Whisker went back to his mouse hole, feeling happy and grateful for his magical tail.

What did he do when the day changed to night? He went back to his mouse hole.

How did he feel when he went back home? Happy and grateful. He felt happy and grateful for his magical tail.

Did he go back to his mouse hole when the day changed to night? Yes, he did.

These days, he is changing into a celebrity among the mice.

Is he changing into a celebrity these days? Yes, he is. He's changing into a celebrity among the mice.

Everybody likes him very much. He is trying to help his friends.

Does everybody hate him? No, everybody likes him very much.

Whisker is a clever mouse; he knows that the best wishes are the ones that bring joy not just to him, but to all his mouse friends.

Is he a clever mouse? Yes, he is.

Are the best wishes the ones that bring joy to everybody? Yes, they are. The best wishes are the ones that bring joy not just to him, but to all his mouse friends.

And so, with a wiggle and a jiggle of his magical tail, Whisker has a lot of excitements!